

SCHOOL PROJECTS RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

ESTIMATING

Project: River Valley High School
Client: Yuba city High School District
Project Costs: $23,808,000

The project consists of 8 buildings for classrooms, administration, gymnasium, science & kitchen. Buildings are structural steel framed with concrete on metal deck. Built-up roofing. Exterior is metal stud with plaster finish. Interior there are 3 separate CMU toilet facilities, concrete foundations and all utilities for Owner supplied portables. Site work consists of architectural concrete, sidewalks, fields, track, etc.

ESTIMATING

Project: Alder Creek Middle School
Client: Tahoe Truckee School District
Project Costs: $21,600,000

The new campus, set on a 35-acre lot, will have 24 regular classrooms, a band room, health room, weight room and technology lab. The 87,000-square-foot facility will also have a gym, cafeteria, administrative offices and a library.

ESTIMATING

Project: University Bookstore
Client: California State University, Stanislaus
Project Costs: $5,600,000

Project consisted of a 12,000 square-foot building. The buildings interior has moderately high ceilings flanking a higher center piece that incorporates natural light features and space for murals that tell the CSU Stanislaus story and promote pride in the University.

